

Amusing her co. and she was going to leave them just as soon as she could get a position in Chicago and she might get an odd day here and would leave immediately and I could then go to St. Louis and live with you I told her she had better be well enough alone, she is so very hateful ^{at times} and I have but little confidence in her and I do not believe half she says, she has made three or 4 white embroidered shirts for herself recently, but will not tell me to say in the machine, she uses it a great deal more than I do; she did not get back any soon on Sat, for she was soon taken sick and lay until Monday afternoon when she went to see Mr. Sanders

My Dear, I received your letter last night and was glad to find that you were well. I am well and hope this letter will find you the same.
I have just received your letter of the 10th and am glad to hear that you are well. I am well and hope
this letter will find you the same.
